generosity to His House!

ONLINE GIVING / ONLINE TITHING

is available on our website:

For those parishioners who can't attend in person or traveling or anyone who find this more convenient, we just set up a new way to tithe online using your credit card or debit card information. You can do a one-time donation or setup weekly donations!! You will receive a receipt and statement immediately after donating. The software takes a very small percentage of the donation, but its worth it for the ease of the system. You can donate using your computer / smartphone at: ps:// www.olphnm.org/giving.

Welcome to our Church! If you are looking for a spiritual home, contact Father Artur/Fr Chris or the office staff for more information. God bless you!

“Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.” Our Lord challenged and always challenges his followers to be sure to seek his will. Spiritual fathers and mothers can be guides to help others so that we do not love mammon instead of God. Is this life of devotion to God something he is asking you to consider by discerning a vocation to the monastic life or to holy orders?

"Recusants of the British Isles" Special class at our church with Fr Chris.

WHEN: Thursday July 21, 10 am - 11:30 am.

The recusants of England and Wales kept "The Old Religion" alive in an underground church that resisted from 1593 until Catholic Relief was granted in 1829. Mass and sacraments were secretly offered by priests branded as traitors, and martyrs suffered frightening deaths. But the faith endured and Catholics were legalized at long last. We hear their words and Fr. Chris presents some of his family's involvement in the Welsh Catholic underground and their hidden chapel. Register with Oasis by going to <https://albuquerque.oasiseverywhere.org>; cost is $10. For more information, call (505) 884-4529.

Catholics in the American Revolution

Catholics were a small minority in the American colonies that voted to unite and form a new nation, independent of the British Empire. Though they had founded Maryland, the Catholics living there were not allowed self-rule by 1776 and their lives were restricted. Those in Pennsylvania did a little better, and were able to build a few churches. A few priests served in these two colonies and New Jersey, ministering to 26,000 English, German, Irish and African* faithful in a country of 4,000,000. Much of the revolutionary discourse against the Crown included fierce anti-Catholic language, and there was great fear of supposed "papist" plots against liberty.

With the Revolution, George Washington put a stop to anti-Catholic practices like burning images of the Pope, and his secretary John Fitzgerald was a Catholic, to the horror of many Protestants. Catholics came forward to support the new country: John Barry founded our Navy with Joshua Barney; Stephen Moylan was Washington's muster-general, Daniel Carroll represented Maryland and Thomas FitzSimons stood for Pennsylvania in Congress. Charles Carroll wrote important pamphlets supporting the revolution, and is the only Catholic signer of the Declaration of Independence. Father John Carroll convinced Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and Virginia to give up their anti-Catholic laws, and in 1784 published a powerful defense of Catholics in the new United States. Catholic France and Spain sent troops and ships with priest-chaplains, and the first Mass offered in Boston was the funeral of a French soldier and was attended by the Continental Congress. Two Polish leaders, the military engineer Tadeusz Kosciuszko and cavalry officer Casimir Pulaski modernized our military forces and defenses. Washington's famous Letter to Catholics (1790) praised our faith as Christian (which many Americans did not think true) and thanked Catholics for their support of the republic. For a tiny population, Catholics had a great impact!

Most of the African Catholics were slaves of Catholic owners - including the Jesuit Fathers!*

Anti-Catholicism is still called "the last acceptable prejudice" in America, and pops up in debates about everything from education care to pro-life issues. It remains incumbent on American Catholics to explain and defend the Faith, to be knowledgeable about what the Church is and is not, and to stand for liberty. As we celebrate the anniversary of our country's birth, let us pray that the words of the popular hymn America the Beautiful be true: America! America! / God shed His grace on thee / And crown thy good with brotherhood / From sea to shining sea!

July 4: American Saints of the Catholic Church (bulletin cover)

St Isaac Jogues and Companions were early martyrs in New York and Canada;

St Kateri is the famous "Lily of the Mohawks", a convert among the Iroquois of New York.

Saint John Neumann, German-Czech immigrant from Bohemia. He joined the Redemptorists, became bishop of Philadelphia, founded of teaching Orders of Sisters, and was a missionary on the Niagara Frontier. He was the first pastor of Fr. Chris' home parish, Saint John the Baptist in 1834. His body is incorrupt.

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton was the widow of an upper-class New York City merchant. Although from the Protestant Episcopal Church and "old" English families of New York, she created a double scandal in America when she became a Roman Catholic (1805) and later founded the Sisters of Charity to staff Catholic schools.

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne was born in France and survived the Revolution's Reign of Terror after being expelled from her convent along with all other Sisters in France. She came to America in 1818 in the Society of the Sacred Heart, founded with Saint Madeleine Barat in 1804. She established schools and colonies in Louisiana and Missouri.

St. Ann Therese Theodore' Guerin was a French nun who established many schools, including Saint Mary of the Woods College. She and five Sisters established the American Sisters of Providence Order in 1840. She was lauded at her death in 1856 for her heroic labors.

Saint Katherine Drexel devoted her fortune to the service of African Americans and Native Americans. She promoted racial equality through her Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament long before it was an accepted cause, and is known as the patron saint of racial justice as a result. Her first school was here in our state, Saint Catherine Indian School in Santa Fe (1887).

St. Damien of Molokai, the famous Belgian priest who took up the feared post of Catholic chaplain to the lepers of Hawaii who were deported from their homes to the barren beach of Molokai island. Father Damien ended up dying among his beloved lepers, contracting the disease himself. After his death in 1889, Saint Marianne Cope, his longtime co-worker and a German immigrant, took over the care of the lepers. She died there in 1918, surrounded by lepers and her Sisters, none of whom ever contracted the disease, just as St. Damien had promised.

St. Francis Xavier Cabrini was an Italian missionary nun who founded schools and hospitals to serve Italian immigrants and the poor in general. She devoted herself to this mission, dying in 1917. Her body in New York City remains incorrupt.
